Misericordia University is a member of the NCAA Division III. The largest of the NCAA’s three divisions, Division III promotes a well-rounded approach to intercollegiate athletics participation. While Division III is best known by some for what it doesn’t offer – athletics scholarships – it has plenty to offer. Knowing that Division III student-athletes play for the love of the game, the D-III experience is structured to help participants develop fully as students, athletes and citizens. Athletics participation at many of the 444 institutions that comprise Division III allows for student-athletes to succeed in the classroom and athletics. That certainly is the case at Misericordia as student-athletes are often active in student government, residence life and other extra-curricular activities.

In addition, Division III playing seasons and class schedules are designed to minimize conflicts between athletics and academics to promote academic success. This is evidenced by MU’s overall 3.17 GPA among student-athletes and 182 MAC All-Academic honorees in 2013-14. While Division III athletics programs promote participation, they don’t sacrifice when it comes to competition. In fact, the NCAA sponsors 36 national championships annually at the D-III level.

Misericordia is one of just two schools in the Middle Atlantic Conference to offer all 23 sports sponsored by the MAC. MU has enjoyed its share of success since joining the Division III ranks in 1992. MU has captured 43 conference championships and sent 22 teams to the NCAA Championships, including the women’s soccer team advancing to the NCAA Final Four in 2012.

In addition, several individuals have put Misericordia on the national map:

- Ashlee Ward, Track & Field: NCAA Indoor & Outdoor high jump champion.
- Eric Sweeney, swimming: NCAA champion.
- Willie Chandler, basketball: Second-leading scorer in Division III history.
- Heather Dougherty, swimming: NCAA All-American.
- Sam Helmstetter, women’s soccer: First-team All-American.
- Michelle Myers, volleyball: Led Division III in blocks per game.
- Amy Bower, cross country: All-American.
- Frank Redmond, track & field: All-American.
- Kim Daniel, field hockey: Eighth in Division III career assists.
- Mike Murphy, baseball: Division III single-game hits record.

Founded in 1924, Misericordia is a liberal arts based, co-educational Catholic institution located in northeastern Pennsylvania. Sponsored by the Religious Sisters of Mercy, MU is one of 18 Mercy institutions in the United States and welcomes individuals from all faiths and offers a variety of liberal arts and professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels. MU offers 34 majors in three academic colleges: Arts and Sciences; Health Sciences; and Professional Studies and Social Sciences.

Dedicated to the values of the Sisters of Mercy: mercy, service, justice and hospitality, these values are found throughout the University, from programs of study to service projects.

The hallmark of MU is a dedicated faculty and a high quality core liberal arts and sciences curriculum. With a total enrollment of 3,111 students, including 1,982 full-time, Misericordia offers the benefits of a small university with the scope of a larger institution. An average class size of 19 ensures personalized attention and a 12.6:1 student/faculty ratio allows students and faculty to truly know one another.

Located in Dallas, PA, MU’s 123-acre campus has a suburban atmosphere and is only nine miles from Wilkes-Barre and two hours from New York City and Philadelphia.

The athletics facilities at Misericordia University recently underwent major renovations which provide MU’s student-athletes with some of the finest competition venues in the region.

The facilities - all located on campus - include the Anderson Center, Mangelsdorf Field at the Anderson Outdoor Athletics Complex, Tambur Field, Metz Field House, McGeehan Field, Anderson Softball Field and six tennis courts.

Since 1993, the Anderson Center has provided a home for the Cougars basketball, volleyball and swim teams.

The Anderson Center features a six-lane swimming pool, indoor track, racquetball courts, fitness center and an aerobic/dance studio.

The building attracts more than 75,000 visitors annually for recreational uses.

Mangelsdorf Field at the Anderson Athletic Complex was constructed in 2002 and serves as a home for the football, soccer, field hockey, lacrosse and track & field programs.

The Anderson Complex features a synthetic grass field and a six-lane synthetic track, with an eight-lane straightaway, which allow MU’s student-athletes to compete even when weather conditions are less than ideal.

The Misericordia softball team has called Anderson Field home since 1992.

Named for the late Dr. Robert S. and Geraldine Ruth Daley Anderson, the Anderson Sports-Health Center, Anderson Athletic Complex and Anderson Fields are all tributes to their commitment to Misericordia University.

Mangelsdorf Field honors the dedication of Jack and Dorothy Mangelsdorf to MU and the region.

The Misericordia tennis complex opened in 2004 as part of a gift by the M & T Foundation.

Honoring the Robert Tambur family, Tambur Field was christened in 2013 as the new home for the MU baseball team.

McGeehan Field, named in honor of Mary Ellen McGeehan ’46, opened in 2012 and provides a second artificial grass venue for the MU field hockey, soccer and lacrosse teams.

In addition, the John & Mary Metz Fieldhouse was constructed in 2012 and provides meeting and locker room space for the MU football, soccer, field hockey, track & field, baseball and lacrosse teams.

The 21,750 square-foot facility is named for long time board of trustee member John Metz and his wife and recognizes their contributions to the MU community.

ROBYN FEDOR STAHOVIC
Head Coach

Robyn Fedor Stahovic is in her 14th season as head coach of field hockey at Misericordia where she also serves as Senior Women’s Administrator.

A year ago, she guided the Cougars to the Freedom Conference championship game for the second straight season. MU also qualified for the ECAC Championships. Stahovic guided Misericordia to its winningest season ever (18-4) in 2002 and owns a career record of 136-119.

Stahovic spent 10 seasons as the MU women’s lacrosse coach and led the team to Pennsylvania Athletic Conference playoff appearances in 2003, 2007 and 2008. She was an all-conference player and a three-year starter while helping the Cougars to three consecutive PAC championships in the mid-1990s.

Stahovic holds a master’s degree in physical therapy from Misericordia. She received the ECAC Award of Valor following her senior season and was inducted into the Plains (PA) Sports Hall of Fame in 2001.

JOELLE BUTRICO
Graduate Assistant

Joelle Butrico is in her first season as a graduate assistant coach with the Misericordia University field hockey team. She is a graduate of Montclair State where she earned her bachelor’s degree in Justice Studies and received the David Dodd Award for the highest GPA in her field of study.

Butrico was a three-year starter at back for the Red Hawks and served as team captain as a senior. She helped the Red Hawks to two NJAC championships and three deep NCAA Tournament runs, including a national runner-up finish in 2012.

DANIKA WATTO
Assistant Coach

Danika Watto is in her first season as an assistant field hockey coach at Misericordia University.

She was a four-year letter-winner and three-year starter and led the Cougars to back-to-back MAC Freedom championship games in 2014 and 2015. Watto was a second-team All-Freedom defender as a senior and received the Coach’s Award as a junior.

A fifth-year student in Misericordia’s physical therapy doctoral program, Watto was named to the MAC Academic Honor Roll and appeared in the National Field Hockey Coach’s Association Senior All-Star game.

JULIA AMENDOLA
Assistant Coach

Julia Amendola is in her fifth season as an assistant coach with the Misericordia University field hockey team. A native of Mountain Top, PA, Amendola was a four-year starter at Susquehanna University.

She was a three-time All-Landmark Conference selection and was named team captain and team MVP as a junior and senior.

CHUCK EDKINS
Athletic Director

Chuck Edkins is in his 25th season at Misericordia University as head men’s soccer coach and enters his first year as director of athletics. He previously served as associate AD and spent 13 seasons as head baseball coach at Misericordia.

MU was 15-6-2 and won the ECAC South title a year ago and Edkins improved to 276-152-33 for his career.

In their first seven seasons in the Freedom Conference, the Cougars have captured four conference titles: 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2012. Under Edkins, Misericordia won three Pennsylvania Athletic Conference championships and made 10 trips to the PAC finals - more than any other school. The 2000 PAC championship squad became the first team in Misericordia history to earn an NCAA Championships bid.

Edkins has also guided the Cougars to seven appearances in the ECAC championships. Misericordia also won the ECAC South title in 2002 and has finished second twice.

A four-time PAC Coach-of-the-Year recipient, Edkins holds an NSCAA Advanced National coaching license.

He earned his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in physical education from SUNY-Cortland.
The Misericordia University field hockey team has been working extremely hard for months on end in preparation for this season, and it is finally time to see all of their hard work pay off.

Despite losing a trio of stellar four year letter-winners, the Cougars are returning plenty of experience for 2015.

“We have an extremely solid group of women, with a dependable core of returners, who have been working on and off the field all summer preparing for this season,” said Misericordia head coach Robyn Fedor Stahovic.

Five seniors are ready to lead the team to new heights, including goalkeeper Angela Pasquini, the reigning MAC Freedom Defensive Player of the Year, and Lindsay Hischak, a first-team MAC Freedom forward Lindsey Hischak.

Pasquini and Hischak were both named second-team NFHCA All-Region a year ago. Pasquini ranks in Misericordia’s top-five all-time in saves (337), save percentage (79.5%) and goals against average (2.04).

Hischak ranks sixth in career scoring with 98 points (36g, 26a).

In addition, senior classmates Sam Partington, Jennifer O’Neill and Brianna Fischer offer plenty of experience and leadership.

O’Neill scored a team-high 19 goals a year ago while Partington had two defensive saves.

Junior returnees Jenn Gazdick and Suzhaunna Lerch are looking to make a huge impact throughout the season along with a strong group of sophomores, including first team All-MAC Freedom forward Colby Eldridge.

Other returning sophomores are Melanie Fry, Carly Kandel, Megan Meckling, Trinity Sprague and Meagan Yeager.

“We a great group of veteran players,” said Stahovic. “It is exciting to see their determination and to have them all on the same page.”

In addition, Stahovic is thrilled to welcome an impressive group of newcomers which will help the team remain on their road to success.

Junior transfer Sarah Gamble and first year student-athletes Emily Galasso, Haley Gruber, Zoe Klunk, Caitlin Redd and Kailey Vogl add talent and depth to the roster.

After two close calls in the post-season, the Cougars believe that their perseverance and persistence will pay off this year.

“Being in the championship the last two years really gives you a burning desire to get back and win,” said Stahovic. “Our goal this year is to win the conference and play deep into November.”
